Our premier Italian-style cheese takes its own sweet time. You can’t rush something this good. It takes our Cave Dweller eight-to-twelve months to develop its sweet and sharp flavor. Made similarly to Parmesan, the curd is cooked as it sets, making it denser and harder as its nuttiness and complexity grows with each passing day. Unlike Parmesan, it is sealed while aged to reduce moisture loss and create a higher moisture, less crumbly cheese body.

CAVE DWELLER
