

MOUNTAIN TOP

Born out of serendipity, MountainTop is a unique American Original. Formed using the classic pyramid Valencay mold, instead of the traditional ash this cheese uses surface blue mold to cover and ripen the cheese. MountainTop is aged in our blue cheese aging room where each pyramid is turned daily. After one to two weeks, the ambient blue molds of the blue room cover the surface of the cheese after which a bloomy white mold begins to develop. The cheeses are then packaged in individual clamshells, which mimic aging room conditions. They will continue to ripen in this environment for another two weeks before being released to our customers. MountainTop is a favorite of soft-ripened cheese lovers, with just a hint of delicate blue notes, and remains our single most awarded cheese including a 2019 Good Food Award.

HOW TO ENJOY

- Melt over roasted asparagus and mushrooms or add to a panini with ham and onion jam.
- Pair with Sauvignon Blanc, Provencal rose, or wheat beer.
- Serve on a cheeseboard with fresh berries, mostarda, or even caramel corn!
